Location: Confidential

Victim(s): Confidential

Suspects: Confidential – Juvenile male

SUMMARY

On 02/22/18, a concerned citizen came to the Chino Hills Police station to report a threat to a school. The citizen, who wished to remain anonymous, had discovered a video made by a juvenile in which violent acts at a school were described. Deputies viewed the video in which the juvenile was reciting a rap song. The rap song included lyrics depicting fighting with other students and concluded with lyrics about shooting a specific school staff member of the Chino Valley Unified School District. Deputies immediately initiated an investigation and identified the juvenile. School officials were made aware of the circumstances and deputies made contact with the juvenile and the juvenile's family at their home. There was a locked safe containing firearms at the location. The juvenile was arrested and booked into Juvenile Hall. At this time, the Chino Hills Police Department has determined there are no additional threats.
