TEEN ACTIVITY CENTER OPENS ON FIRST DAY OF SCHOOL AUGUST 13

Chino Hills, CA – The free after-school Teen Activity Center starts up for the fall on Monday, August 13th, the first day of school. Located directly across the street from Ruben S. Ayala High School at the Chino Hills Community Center, 14250 Peyton Drive, the program offers supervised recreational activities Monday through Friday 1:30 to 4:30 p.m. High School teens, ages 13 to 18 may enjoy a variety of activities including billiards, ping pong, games, TVs, music, and study areas. The program follows the Chino Valley Unified School District calendar and is closed on City holidays and CVUSD days off.
