CHINO HILLS POLICE DEPARTMENT TO HOST
QUALITY OF LIFE VIRTUAL WORKSHOPS
MARCH 29, 30 AND APRIL 1

Chino Hills, CA – The Chino Hills Police Department is hosting Quality of Life Virtual Workshops on Monday, March 29; Tuesday, March 30; and Thursday, April 1 from 6:30-8:00 pm. According to Captain John Walker, the Department is driven by proactive goals and would like to team up with the community to review any quality of life concerns. The Chino Hills Police Department has hosted these meetings each year, starting in 2019. Input collected from residents will assist the Department in addressing law enforcement concerns through prioritized, focused enforcement of laws and ordinances based on top community concerns.

Residents and businesses may select one workshop from the three dates available. Advanced registration is required. Please visit www.chinohills.org/QualityofLife to register for the date selected. The Chino Hills Police Department will be prepared to review trending crime concerns in Chino Hills. For additional information or special accommodations, please call the Crime Prevention Unit at (909) 364-2038.
