Chino Hills, CA – The City of Chino Hills is now accepting applications for equestrian shows to be held at the historic McCoy Equestrian & Recreation Center located at 14280 Peyton Drive. The McCoy Equestrian & Recreation Center features three arenas, a main show arena, a secondary show arena and a warm-up arena. The main show arena and secondary show arena are both lighted and include shaded bleacher seating. The two show arenas feature a public address system and an announcer stand. A nearby gazebo is often used for picnics or to provide a space for concessions.

The McCoy Equestrian & Recreation Center is a one-of-a-kind facility that has been home to several past equestrian shows and events including Dressage, Western, and Hunter/Jumper. Space is available to accommodate portable horse stalls for multi-day events. The arenas have also hosted equestrian search and rescue training.
