PLANNING COMMISSION APPLICATIONS SOUGHT DEADLINE TO APPLY IS AUGUST 27

Chino Hills, CA – The City of Chino Hills invites residents to apply for a vacancy on the Planning Commission. The Chino Hills Planning Commission is an appointed body that reviews issues related to the physical development of the City. Council Member Cynthia Moran will review the applications and nominate an individual to fill a vacancy created after Planning Commissioner Patrick Hamamoto submitted his resignation. Applications must be returned by 4:00 pm on Friday, August 27 to the City Clerk's Office located on the second floor at City Hall at 14000 City Center Drive.

Applicants must be residents of the City and be able to attend Commission meetings twice a month. The Planning Commission meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month at 7:00 pm. The Commission reviews subdivision maps, site plans, amendments to the Development Code and General Plan, residential designs, design standards, and development standards.

Applications are available online at www.chinohills.org/PlanningCommissionApplication and in the City Clerk's lobby on the second floor at City Hall, located at 14000 City Center Drive. Completed applications can also be mailed to: City Clerk's Office, Chino Hills City Hall, 14000 City Center Drive, Chino Hills, CA 91709. To request a faxed application, please call (909) 364-2620 or send an email to cityclerk@chinohills.org.

Interviews may be scheduled, and a nomination is expected to be made by Council Member Moran at the September 14 City Council meeting. Members of the City Council must affirm the appointment.

Applications to volunteer to serve on the Parks and Recreation, Planning, and Public Works Commission are available online and may be submitted at any time. Completed applications are valid for a period of one year and will be considered if a vacancy occurs during that time. For additional information, please call the City Clerk's Office at (909) 364-2620.
