NONPROFITS INVITED TO APPLY FOR 2022-2023 COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT FUNDS – APPLICATIONS ACCEPTED BEGINNING JANUARY 3, 2022

Chino Hills, CA – The City of Chino Hills invites qualified organizations with eligible programs to apply for 2022-23 Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds. Funding will be for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 2022 and ending June 30, 2023. All nonprofit organizations that meet federal guidelines are eligible to apply, including faith-based organizations. CDBG funds are paid to the nonprofit on a reimbursement basis after services are delivered and results are documented. Applications will be accepted from January 3, 2022 through January 20, 2022.

To be eligible, an organization must be a nonprofit and primarily service low- to moderate-income persons. Examples of currently funded programs include services for battered women and their children, housing mediation, food bank, and literacy services. Nonprofit organizations are required to provide a brief history of their organization, the mission statement of the organization, how the proposed project fits into the organization's goals, and the ability of the organization to carry out the project.

The applicant's proposal should describe in depth how the CDBG funds will be spent, how the expenditure will benefit the community, and how accomplishments will be documented. Other required documents include State and Federal Exemption letters, and general liability certificate with additionally insured endorsement. Successful applicants will be required to submit quarterly reimbursement requests and performance reports. The achievements of program goals and completion of activities must be supported by adequate documentation.

The Chino Hills City Council will award CDBG funding in February 2022 to projects/programs that benefit the residents of Chino Hills. Nonprofits interested in applying can review program guidelines, eligibility requirements, and download an application online at www.chinohills.org/CDBG. For questions or assistance on the application process, please contact the Community Services Department at (909) 364-2710.
