Human Services Programs

As part of the City' commitment to improving the quality of family life and the safety of neighborhoods, Human Services provides counseling, prevention education, intervention programs, and referral services to the community. To review the online resource directory, please visit www.cityofchino.org.

University Intern Counseling Program

Many of the Human Services programs utilize graduate and bachelor degree level university students as interns. Full clinical supervision is provided to meet university and state requirements for fieldwork and licensing hours to become a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. School-based opportunities for training experience is provided.

Court Mandated Programs

CHOICES Batters' Treatment

The Batters' Treatment courses are designed to help individuals mandated by the court system to identify anger issues that cause problems in relationships. This is a 52-week program. There is a fee for this service.

School-Based Programs

City of Chino, City of Chino Hills, and Chino Valley Unified School District (CVUSD) Partnership

All school-based programs are a cooperative effort between the City of Chino, City of Chino Hills, and CVUSD. The goal of this partnership is to promote positive school experiences. For more information about signing up for the following programs, please speak to CVUSD school staff or call City of Chino Human Services at 909.334.3259.

Youth Counseling

This program provides counseling services to elementary school-age students experiencing family difficulties, low self-esteem, social adjustment problems, and/or behavioral difficulties. School site counseling is free to students who attend a CVUSD school.

Teen Counseling

This program provides counseling services to middle and high school-age students experiencing family difficulties, low self-esteem, social adjustment problems, and/or behavioral difficulties. School site counseling is free to students who attend a CVUSD school.

Tobacco Use Prevention Education Program (TUPE)

The Tobacco Use Prevention Education (TUPE) Program consists of six intervention/prevention programs: Model Smoking Prevention Program (MSPP), Project ALERT, Project ALERT Booster, Smokeless Saturdays, Tobacco Advocacy Initiative (TAI) and Smoking Cessations, known as Call It Quits (CIQ). These programs provide 6th-12th grade students insight, understanding, and practical skills for resisting tobacco and substance abuse.

Family Resource Centers

HOPE, TYKES & C.A.R.E.

The CVUSD Family Resource Centers are school-based service sites dedicated to preserving and strengthening students and their families in need of support. Their purpose is to help remove a student's nonacademic barriers to education by assisting children and families with much needed information and resources.
